SUMMARY.

G. F. Carpenter of Minneapolis, Minn., is at the Leland.

Congressman Ralph Plumb of Seward, Ill., is at the Sherman.

Col. T. M. Wilson of New York and W. J. Brown of Detroit, Mich., are at the Palmer.

Robert J. M. Swank, Victoria, B. C.; Congressman S. Bedford, Evanston, Ill.; Mrs. John Carter, Porter, Ind., and John Hendrickson, North Bend, Ind., are at the Palmer.

Governor Hoyt received the bill to fix Salaries from state officers yesterday and announced his intention to let the matter rest over as he has many bills yet to pass on. The measure will be taken up to-day.

In a paragraph printed the other day about the disappearance of a girl under the Jefferson & Lake park line was the name of Mrs. Ellen O. Bowers instead of Mrs. Ellen Bowers, which is not the name of the lady whose grief was so touching.

The Chicago Lacrosse yesterday issued cards of invitation for the funeral of John Fitzgerald and members of Chicago's representatives of the several Eastern and French clubs, the pallbearers selected, will have a meeting for that purpose this evening.

A stockholders' meeting of the Rock Island Pulling Company was held at the Tremont, this morning, for the purpose of considering the proposal and plans for the construction, handling the business of said road this week, was made.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Sergeant Charles Hutchins, was as follows: Maximum, 54 deg. 30 min., at 2:30 p. m.; minimum, 37 deg. 30 min., at 6 a. m.; mean, 45 deg. 90 min.; range, 17 deg.; mean dew point, 37 deg. 30 min.; mean humidity, 72 deg.; prevailing direction of wind, southwest; total movement, 350 miles; total rainfall, 0.01 inch.

In the proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners published yesterday omitted the bill of C. A. Gunn & Co. for the purchase of the Bellaire to county books allowed was entered as allowed. There was also $250,000, which the figures at which the bonds sold were $250,000.

A woman named Pollock, whose husband is in an insane asylum, and who has been living at No. 148 North Jefferson avenue, has been in jail on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. She was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Thoroughgood, who lives next door, and recently purchased the property adjoining the Pollock premises. The Pollock girls were also arrested.

Rev. O. L. Hallenbeck of Indianapolis, who has been here the guest of the Rev. Dr. Goodwin of the Church of the Redeemer, has preached in the pulpit of the Congregational and will probably occupy it next Sunday, conducting the services both morning and evening.

Sheriff Hesterlick is sighing for the Indiana prison reports to arrive which state clearly the reason that has the support of the other three men accordingly for and that he knows, for the last two months, given the Sheriff's hospitality, have been entirely at a loss as to how of serving subpœnas.

In describing the terrible gunpowder explosion at the foundry for submarine guns-operating report in Sunday's TRIBUNE a compositor's error made Mr. Jones, of Jones Bros. & Co., into a quarrelsome Irish gentleman, instead of the quiet, unassuming Welshman that he is. Mr. Jones is one of the oldest members of the St. George society.

The Chicago Lacrosse club will play a game with the Shamrocks of Toronto, Canada, on the Shamrock grounds, Toronto, on Saturday, April 4. The Chicagos will leave for Toronto on the morning of April 3, and will return on the evening of the 4th.

Rev. T. C. Easton, who has for some time past been a resident of Austin, Ill., and recently leave for this city, was presented with an address by his people previous to which they expressed their high appreciation of his untiring efforts in every good enterprise in the Austin vicinity, and presented him with a purse containing $100 in gold.

Tony Weber, John Kinsella, and Paul Kolasch were a police drag at the 4th South Clark street. It is charged that the place was a resort for the Schwabians in the neighborhood, and that the proprietor, who got there and spent half their money, charged them with all sorts of extra fees. The prisoners were released on bail of $300 each, and will have a hearing before Justice Morris.

A stockholders' meeting of the North Side City Railway Company was held at the Tremont, this morning, for the purpose of considering the proposal and plans for the construction, handling the business of said road this week, was made.

The prisoners were released on bail of $300 each, and will have a hearing before Justice Morris.

The six young men arrested for carrying concealed weapons and disturbing the peace yesterday morning were brought before Justice Summerfield this morning. C. C. Brown, the man who struck the police patrol, was the first to be called. Officer Sullivan said Brown, with the other captives, came into Bonfield's saloon, where they were drinking, and, upon being asked to leave, refused. Brown then struck him a blow on the face, which knocked him down. Officer Sullivan then arrested Brown, who, on the way to the station-house, struck the officer a blow on the face. Brown was fined $50 and costs, and the other five were fined $20 and costs each. The amount was paid by the prisoners.

Commissioner Bonfield, in speaking of the matter, said: "I have issued orders that all persons found carrying concealed weapons shall be arrested, and I intend to have the order enforced. I have also issued orders that all persons found disturbing the peace shall be arrested, and I intend to have that order enforced.
